

Institute of Family Practice Faculty Staff - FDR

Helen Jukes LL.B Grad Dip L P Cert IV Workplace Assessment & Training Accredited FDRP

Helen has a legal background, and worked for 13 years as a conciliator and mediator at the Family Court as a member of the Courts initial pilot project and later in the Mediation Unit in the Melbourne Registry. Helen joined Unifam as a mediator in 2001 and has been a trainer with IFP since 2004. Helen has been responsible for delivering and presenting various courses for FDRP's at the IFP relating to mediating in the Family Law context and mediation Framework. Recently Helen has been appointed a Co-ordinator of Training and Development with the IFP and is currently training FDRP's engaging in the new accreditation requirements.

Nandy MacKinnon B.SW. Grad Dip Conflict Resolution, Cert IV Workplace Assessment & Training, Accredited FDRP

Nandy graduated with a Social Work Degree from Sydney University in 1987 and has worked both in Hospital and non-government settings providing counselling and advocacy to families in need. She has completed a Graduate Diploma in Rehabilitation Counselling 1996 and a Graduate Diploma in Conflict Resolution in 1996 from Macquarie University.

She has worked as an accredited Family Dispute Resolution Practitioner since 1996 with Unifam, mediating disputes with separated families in relation to children and property issues. She has obtained a Certificate 1V in Training and Assessment in 2003.

Nandy has provided supervision and training both internally to Unifam staff and externally to graduates of the Certificate 1V in Mediation. She has also been involved in developing and training the core competencies of the Graduate Diploma in Family Dispute Resolution, which is a six month intensive course including over 15 hours of face to face supervised mediation.

Andrea Cotter-Moroz Barrister and Accredited FDRP, Cert IV Workplace Assessment & Training

Lisa Robinson B.Sc (Honors), Masters in Couple and Family Therapy, Cert IV Workplace Assessment & Training, Accredited FDRP

Lisa is currently Regional Coordinator (Campbelltown) with Unifam Counselling and Mediation. She has over 15 years experience as a counsellor.